Location: 600 Block of Laurel Street, San Carlos, California
Type of Crime/Incident: 273a(a) PC – Cruelty to Child (Felony)
647 (f) PC – Public Intoxication (Misdemeanor)

Suspect: Jeremy Ryan Davis, 39 years old, Patterson, CA. resident.

Summary:
On Sunday, September 8, 2019, at approximately 4:27 pm, Sheriff’s Office Deputies were conducting foot patrol in the 600 block of Laurel Street in San Carlos, when they were flagged down by a concerned citizen reporting a baby crying inside a vehicle. Deputies located the vehicle nearby in a parking lot on the west side of Laurel Street and observed an adult male, later identified as Jeremy Davis, asleep in the front passenger seat of his vehicle. In the rear of the vehicle, was Davis’ 18-month old daughter buckled in a car seat.

At the time, it was a warm/sunny day, the vehicle was not running and all four car windows were open only slightly causing extremely high/dangerous temperatures inside the vehicle. The child was screaming and appeared to be in obvious distress.

Deputies opened the unlocked vehicle and began tending to the child, who was removed from the vehicle and medically evaluated by Fire and Medics on scene. After several repeated attempts to wake Davis, he finally awoke and was evaluated on scene by investigating Deputies.

Davis was found to be under the combined influence of alcohol and cannabis, and was unable to safely care for his own well-being nor care for his 18-month-old baby. Davis was arrested and booked into San Mateo County Jail on the above listed charges. The child was later released to the custody of her mother and appeared to be doing well in the aftermath of the incident.

Anyone who might have information regarding this crime is encouraged to call the San Mateo County Sheriff’s Anonymous Tip Line at 1-800-547-2700.
