 Incident Date and Time: Saturday, October 26, 2019, at approximately 5:35 PM

 Location: Home Depot, 1125 Old County Road, San Carlos, CA.

 Type of Crime/Incident: PC 212.5(c) – Robbery (Felony)
 PC 460(b) – Commercial Burglary (Felony)
 PC 243(e)(1) – Domestic Violence (Misdemeanor)

 Suspect: Dan Navalopez, 34-year-old male, San Francisco resident.

 Summary:

 On Saturday, October 26, 2019, at approximately 5:35 pm, San Carlos Police Bureau Sheriff's Deputies were dispatched to a strong-arm robbery that occurred in front of the Home Depot Store involving a male suspect and female victim in her thirties. It was reported the suspect had fled the scene following the attack. Deputies arrived on scene and located the suspect in the Home Depot parking lot. The suspect was immediately detained and the victim later positively identified Dan Navalopez as the suspect who had attacked her.

 The investigation further revealed that Navalopez was the victim’s ex-boyfriend and that he had jumped through an enclosed food stand window in front of the Home Depot Store, forcefully pushed the victim, then stole the victim’s cell phone and purse before fleeing the scene. The victim was uninjured and all of her personal property was returned to her. Navalopez was arrested and booked into the San Mateo County Jail on the above charges without incident.
